

Canada Study Permit Document Checklist

This checklist summarizes the commonly required documents for a Canada Study Permit application. Requirements may vary depending on the applicant's country of residence and individual circumstances.

1. Identity Documents

- Valid passport or travel document.
- Copy of the passport information page (if requested).
- Recent passport-size photographs (if required).

2. Admission Documents

- Letter of Acceptance (LOA) from a Designated Learning Institution (DLI).

3. Application Forms

- Completed Study Permit application.
- Additional IRCC or visa office forms, if applicable.

4. Proof of Financial Support

- Bank statements.
- Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC), if applicable.
- Education loan sanction letter.
- Proof of tuition fee payment.
- Scholarship or sponsorship letter.
- Sponsor's financial documents (if someone else is funding your studies).

5. Academic Documents

- 10th grade marksheet/certificate.
- 12th grade marksheet/certificate.
- Bachelor's degree (if applicable).
- Official academic transcripts.
- Graduation certificate (if applicable).

6. English/French Language Test

- IELTS Academic, PTE Academic, TOEFL iBT, or another accepted language test as required by the institution.

7. Statement of Purpose (Study Plan)

- Explain why you chose Canada, your course, institution, career goals, and your plans after completing your studies.

8. Biometrics

- Biometrics appointment confirmation (if required).

9. Medical Examination

- Immigration Medical Examination (IME) confirmation from an IRCC-approved panel physician, if required.

10. Police Clearance Certificate

- Provide only if requested by IRCC.

11. Family Information

- Family information form and supporting details, if applicable.

12. Additional Supporting Documents

- Marriage certificate (if applicable).
- Birth certificate (if applicable).
- Previous visas or travel history.
- Employment documents (if applicable).
- Custodianship declaration for minors (if applicable).

Important Notes

- A Letter of Acceptance (LOA) from a Designated Learning Institution (DLI) is mandatory.
- Proof of financial support is mandatory.
- Biometrics are required for most applicants.
- Medical examinations and police certificates are required only in certain cases.
- IRCC may request additional documents during processing.